

PUZZLES

Match Ups

Good News Square

The twenty-seven books of the New Testament tell about Jesus and those who carried the story of Jesus into the villages and cities of the first-century world. Choose the numbered statement that matches each word. Write the number in the proper square. When all your answers are correct, the total of numbers will be the same across each row and down each column.

1. This letter was written to the churches of Galatia.
2. This book tells how early Christians spread the good news about Jesus.
3. This word means "good news."
4. This book is one of the four Gospels in the New Testament.
5. The disciples were to wait in this city until they received the power to witness. (If you need help, read Acts 1:1-8.)
6. This letter was written to Christians at Philippi.
7. Luke's Gospel is addressed to this important official. (If you need help, see Luke 1:1-4.)
8. Jerusalem was located in this region of Palestine.
9. This person led three missionary journeys to tell Gentiles (non-Jews) about Jesus.

Gospel	Luke	Judea
Jerusalem	Paul	Galatians
Theophilus	Acts	Philippians